Psalm 126

We praise the One who gave the growth, with voi - ces full and strong.

When God brought Zion's captives home,
it seemed to us like a dream.

But then our mouths were full of laughter,
and our tongues uttered shouts of joy.

Then they said among the nations:

"God has done great things for them."

Truly God has done great things for us,
and therefore we rejoice. R

Restore our fortunes, O God, as streams refresh the Negev.

Those who sow in tears shall reap with shouts of joy.

Those who go out weeping, carrying seed for sowing,

shall come home with songs of joy, bringing in their sheaves. R

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 2:1-7

Sue Jeffrey

Homily

The Rev'd Canon Steve Harnadek

Anthem "Thanks Be to God"(1998) by Don Besig & Nancy Price

For the mountains and valleys, the rivers and seas,
for the flowers in summertime and autumn's bright leaves;
for the sunshine and moonlight and stars high above,
and for filling each day with beauty and love;

Refrain

*Thanks be to God, thanks be to God,
our grateful voices we raise, we raise.
For amazing grace and God's precious love,
we sing our with glory and praise.*

For the people around us, the young and the old,
and for laughter and fellowship and hands we can hold;
for our brothers and sisters and families who care,
and for filling our lives with friends we can share:

Refrain

For the Babe in a manger asleep in the hay,
for the Man on a mountainside who taught us to pray;
for the Teacher who helped us to love and forgive,
for the Savior who died so we all can live:

*Thanks be to God, thanks be to God,
our grateful voices we raise, we raise.
For amazing grace and God's precious love,
we sing our with glory and praise.
To God above be all glory and praise.*
